STIPULATION AND ORDER ALLOWING
TRAVEL BY DEFENDANT BRENDA M. O. CHUNG (02)

IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED, by and between the parties hereto, that Defendant Brenda M. O. Chung (02) be permitted to travel with her passport from January 13, 2006 through January 28, 2006 to Milan, Vicenza, and Lugano, Italy, for the purpose of purchasing inventory for her business.

SCANNED

IT IS FURTHER STIPULATED that:

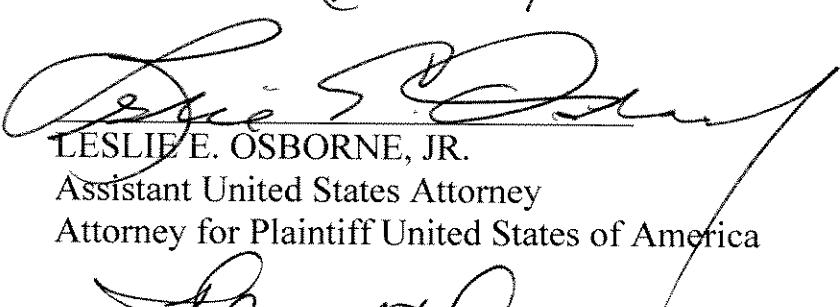

- (1) Prior to the obtaining of her passport and departure from the jurisdiction of this Court, Defendant shall provide to Pretrial Services a complete and detailed itinerary of her travel, including all dates and places where she shall be throughout the period of her travel, and shall provide such other information requested by Pretrial Services;
- (2) Defendant may pick up her passport from the Clerk of this Court no earlier than the business day prior to her departure, and Defendant must return her passport to the Clerk of this Court no later than the end of the business day after her return;
- (3) There shall be no contact, either directly or indirectly, by Defendant or by any person acting on her behalf, with the Government's cooperating witness named "E.D." in it's second superseding indictment;
- (4) Any variance from the itinerary provided by Defendant to Pretrial Services shall constitute a violation of this Court's order, and any contact with the person referenced in paragraph 2 hereinabove, in any manner described in paragraph 2 hereinabove, shall constitute a violation of this order;
- (5) Any violation of this order shall subject Defendant to a revocation of her pretrial release in this case;

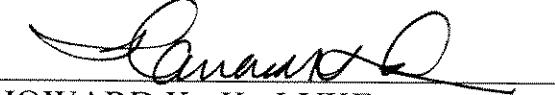

(6) Any violation of this order shall subject Defendant to additional penalties as provided by law in the instant case;

(7) Any violation of this order shall subject Defendant to new and additional charges against her in a separate criminal proceeding as provided by law.

SO STIPULATED.

DATED: Honolulu, Hawaii, Dec 27, 2005.
